

IDAHO'S NOTED GANG

More About Roberts' Friendship for Warden Mack.

LOOKS LIKE A BAD BREAK

Things That Invite Investigation—Torrence's Departure From Boise—Republican Love for Mormons.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

Boise, Idaho, April 8.—Ex-Warden Mack of the Idaho penitentiary is being accused day after day of an increased shortage in his accounts as warden of the "pen." Mr. Mack is responsible for the first statement of a shortage, and now it seems as if many others are to follow. Governor Willey is extremely anxious for Mack to explain certain items which appear in his reports.

The citizens of Boise do not feel disposed to judge Warden Mack harshly, yet they feel that if he has been influenced to loan Attorney General Roberts money from the prisoners' fund he is certainly a very weak man.

Warden Mack knew Roberts as well, or better perhaps, than most men in this neck of the woods, and he certainly knew better than to lend him money from the prisoners' fund or his own private funds. The general belief is that Roberts knew Mack was "broke" when he went into the office of warden, and he knew that Mack thought he (Mack) had "struck a fat thing," and that a loan of a few dollars would not hurt him. So it is said that Roberts went to work on Mack and borrowed everything that he could from him, no matter whether it came from Mack's own funds or from the prisoners' fund, he accepted it all the same. Attorney General Roberts has a record on Wood river in regard to many transactions which he had there, and the general opinion here is that as bad as Warden Mack may be and as good as General Roberts pretends to be, Mack is as good as Roberts.

Col. John H. Torrence, deputy revenue collector of this city, without doubt has gone for good. The colonel was short to the extent of $20 in his accounts with the department. Why he should have left is a mystery, unless it was for the reason that he had lived in a manner so as to lose the confidence of the citizens of Boise. In addition to this, Torrence had made bills with all the principal business men of the city, and had borrowed money in whatever sums he could from whoever he could. It is believed that he is gone for good.

It is a noteworthy fact that the present term of the federal court is now pursuing its old tactics of releasing Mormons charged with unlawful cohabitation.

The two last cases were those of Robert Price and J. H. Stuckie. The republican howl prior to the last election and the first state election ever held in Idaho was strictly anti-Mormon. Now the same anti-Mormon republicans say "the Mormons are as good as we are." This is true and more than true, the Mormons are a great deal better than the men who say this. The Mormons are sincere in the principles they enunciated then, they are sincere in the principles they enunciate now. The Mormons of Idaho may have faults, but they consider the chief fault of any Mormon to be a possible allegiance to the republican party—the party which above all others has attempted to ensnare them with the idea that it has within the last two years experienced a wonderful change of heart in favor of the Mormon people. It will be remembered that Mr. Dubois and his cohorts made their debut on their earnest opposition to the right of the Mormon to exercise the right of franchise, a right which is guaranteed to every citizen under the constitution of the United States. The republicans of Idaho might just as well be honest and say "We won our victory by fighting the Mormons." The republicans need not try to get the Mormon vote by rank hypocrisy as they are doing at present.

IDAHO CITY NOTES.

A Residence Burned in Garden Valley—A New Bridge Wanted.

Special Correspondence of the Standard.

IDAHO CITY, Idaho, April 5.—News reached here yesterday of the burning of Mrs. N. Wetzel's residence in Garden valley, 30 miles from here. It was one of the finest residences in the county, and besides all of the household effects and furniture, ten or twelve adjoining buildings, consisting of granaries, stables, etc., were destroyed. The fire was caused by a defective stovepipe, and was not discovered until well under way. The loss has not been ascertained, but is very heavy.

Cloudy weather here and snow falling on the mountains.

No new cases of diphtheria. All those afflicted will recover.

A petition is in circulation asking the county commissioners to construct a bridge across the Fayette river at Marsh & Irwin's ranch, eight miles below Horse shoe bend. That bridge is a public necessity and should be built.

Roads still in bad condition. The loss of stock on Squaw creek was very light—very much less than was expected. Grass coming and horses and cattle are now doing well.

A SILVER CLUB.

Dillon Citizens Make a Move in the Right Direction.

Special to the Standard.

DILLON, April 9.—A large meeting was held Friday night in Stille's hall for the purpose of organizing a silver club. Benjamin Bond was chosen chairman and Fidel Huber secretary. The address of the Colorado Silver league was read by Judge Melton and a committee on platform and resolutions was appointed. The committee reported the following platform:

We, the undersigned, do hereby associate ourselves as a free silver coinage league, and do pledge ourselves to support, without regard to party sentiment, the political party that avows its advocacy of the free coinage of silver.

About fifty members joined the club.

NO CHINESE WANTED.

A Phillipsburg Business Man Who Believes in White Labor.

Special to the Standard.

PHILLIPSBURG, April 9.—The Huffman house at the Phillipsburg depot has always employed white help in every department, and the proprietor prides himself on the superiority of his chief cook. Good, clean rooms and competent and obliging attention to the wants of guests, as well as cheap rates, are the points of excellence in which this hotel surpasses all others in Phillipsburg.

Case Compound Myopic Astigmatism.

MELROSE, Mont., June 18, 1880.

Messrs. Lanyon & Turk.

DEAR SIRS—Having for about a year been troubled with weak eyes and poor eyesight, I some time in April last called at your store and had my eyes examined by Mr. Lanyon for the purpose of having glasses fitted to them. I then purchased a pair for distance reading, and two weeks later another pair for reading. I have now given the glasses a fair test and find them so entirely what I needed that I can not only see very much better while wearing them, but my eyes from their use, have already become so much stronger that I can see better with the naked eye than I could before. I consider this latter fact an important one in your favor and desire to express my hearty approval of you as an optician and wish that all who need glasses may receive the benefit of your skill. Yours respectfully,

OSCAR WELLS,
